

North Central College Men's Soccer GAME NOTES

Oct. 22, 2025
North Central College Cardinals (7-1-6)
vs Illinois Wesleyan University Titans (10-2-2)

Setting the Scene: The North Central College men's soccer team welcomes the Illinois Wesleyan Titans for a mid-week CCIW battle between the No. 2 and 3 teams in the conference.

Series History: The Cardinals own a 23-14-5 record all time against the Titans dating back to 1984. North Central has won five straight matches with the last win being a 2-1 victory on Oct. 23, 2024.

About the Cardinals: North Central has yet to lose a CCIW match in regulation this season with a 3-0-2 record in conference. They most recently tied with Carthage College 2-2 this past Saturday. Their only loss of the season comes back in Sept. when they fell 3-2 to Wartburg College.

The Cardinals offense is led by the attack of Joseph Sargent, who is tied for the most goals in the CCIW with 12.

In the midfield, Marco Costabile has set his teammates up, with nine total assists this year. That mark leads the conference.

North Central has scored over double the goals than allowed with 2.29 goals per game and 1.07 goals allowed per game.

Scouting the Titans: Illinois Wesleyan is 4-1 in conference with their only conference loss coming against Wheaton College on Oct. 8. Since then the Titans have outscored their opponents 7-2.

Ben Lyons leads the Titans in goals with six followed by Ryder Coleman with four. Sam Kedzior, has allowed just 13 goals in 14 games played and has 53 saves this season while maintaining a 10-2-2 record.
